 18 THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
 19 Plaintiff,
 20 v.
 21 THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA;
 EDMUND GERALD BROWN JR.,
 Governor of California, in his Official
 22 Capacity; and XAVIER BECERRA,
 Attorney General of California, in his
 23 Official Capacity,
 24 Defendants.

No. 18-264

 26 Plaintiff, the United States of America, by and through its undersigned counsel, brings 27 this civil action for declaratory and injunctive relief, and alleges as follows:
 28

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1
2 1. In this action, the United States seeks a declaration invalidating and preliminarily and 3 permanently enjoining the enforcement of certain provisions of California law. These 4 provisions are preempted by federal law and impermissibly discriminate against the 5 United States, and therefore violate the Supremacy Clause of the United States
6 Constitution.

7
8 2. The United States has undoubted, preeminent authority to regulate immigration matters.
9 This authority derives from the United States Constitution and numerous acts of 10 Congress. California has no authority to enforce laws that obstruct or otherwise conflict 11 with, or discriminate against, federal immigration enforcement efforts.

12
13 3. This lawsuit challenges three California statutes that reflect a deliberate effort by 14 California to obstruct the United States’ enforcement of federal immigration law, to 15 regulate private entities that seek to cooperate with federal authorities consistent with 16 their obligations under federal law, and to impede consultation and communication
17 between federal and state law enforcement officials.

18
19 4. The first statute, the “Immigrant Worker Protection Act,” Assembly Bill 450 (“AB 450”), 20 prohibits private employers in California from voluntarily cooperating with federal 21 officials who seek information relevant to immigration enforcement that occurs in places
22 of employment.

24 5. The second statute, Assembly Bill 103 (“AB 103”), creates an inspection and review
25 scheme that requires the Attorney General of California to investigate the immigration
26 enforcement efforts of federal agents.

27 6. The third statute, Senate Bill 54 (“SB 54”), which includes the “California Values Act,” 28

1 limits the ability of state and local law enforcement officers to provide the United States
2 with basic information about individuals who are in their custody and are subject to 3 federal immigration custody, or to transfer such individuals to federal immigration
4 custody.

5
6 7. The provisions of state law at issue have the purpose and effect of making it more
7 difficult for federal immigration officers to carry out their responsibilities in California.
8 The Supremacy Clause does not allow California to obstruct the United States' ability to 9 enforce laws that Congress has enacted or to take actions entrusted to it by the 10 Constitution. Accordingly, the provisions at issue here are invalid.

11
12 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 8. The Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1345.

14 9. Venue is proper in this jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because Defendants reside
15 within the Eastern District of California and because a substantial part of the acts or 16 omissions giving rise to this Complaint arose from events occurring within this judicial 17 district.

19 10. The Court has the authority to provide the relief requested under the Supremacy Clause, 20 U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2, as well as 28 U.S.C. §§ 1651, 2201, and 2202, and its inherent 21 equitable powers.

23 PARTIES

24 11. Plaintiff, the United States, regulates immigration under its constitutional and statutory 25 authorities, and it enforces the immigration laws through its Executive agencies,
26 including the Departments of Justice, State, and Labor, and the Department of Homeland
27 Security (DHS) including its component agencies U.S. Immigration and Customs 28

1 Enforcement (ICE), and U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

2 12. Defendant State of California is a state of the United States.

3 13. Defendant Edmund Gerald Brown Jr. is the Governor of the State of California and is 4 being sued in his official capacity.

5 14. Defendant Xavier Becerra is Attorney General for the State of California and is being 6 sued in his official capacity.
7

8 FEDERAL IMMIGRATION LAW

9 15. The Constitution affords Congress the power to “establish an uniform Rule of 10 Naturalization,” U.S. Const., art. I § 8, cl. 4, and to “regulate Commerce with foreign 11 Nations,” U.S. Const., art. I § 8, cl. 3, and affords the President of the United States the 12 authority to “take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed.” U.S. Const., art. II § 3.

14 16. The Supremacy Clause of the Constitution mandates that “[t]his Constitution, and the 15 Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof . . . shall be the 16 supreme Law of the Land . . . any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the 17 Contrary notwithstanding.” U.S. Const., art. VI, cl. 2. Thus, a state enactment is invalid if 18 it “stands as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the full purposes and 19 objectives of Congress,” Hines v. Davidowitz, 312 U.S. 52, 67 (1941), or if it 20 “discriminate[s] against the United States or those with whom it deals,” South Carolina v.
21 Baker, 485 U.S. 505, 523 (1988).

24 17. Based on its enumerated powers and its constitutional power as a sovereign to control and 25 conduct relations with foreign nations, the United States has broad authority to establish 26 immigration laws, the execution of which the States cannot obstruct or discriminate
27 against. See Arizona v. United States, 567 U.S. 387, 394-95 (2012); accord North 28

1 Dakota v. United States, 495 U.S. 423, 435 (1990) (plurality); id. at 444-47 (Scalia, J., 2 concurring).

3 18. Congress has exercised its authority to make laws governing the entry, presence, status,
4 and removal of aliens within the United States by enacting various provisions of the 5 Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq., the Immigration Reform
6 and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA), Pub. L. No. 99-603, 100 Stat 3359, codified at 8 U.S.C.
7 § 1324a et seq., and other laws regulating immigration.

8
9 19. These laws codify the Executive Branch’s authority to inspect, investigate, arrest, detain,
10 and remove aliens who are suspected of being, or found to be, unlawfully in the United 11 States. See 8 U.S.C. §§ 1182, 1225, 1226, 1227, 1228, 1231, 1357.

13 20. Congress has also codified basic principles of cooperation and comity between state and 14 local authorities and the United States. For example, federal law contemplates that 15 removable aliens in state custody who have been convicted of state or local offenses will 16 generally serve their state or local criminal sentences before being subject to removal, but 17 that they will be taken into federal custody upon the expiration of their state prison terms.
18 See id. §§ 1226(c), 1231(a)(1)(B)(iii), (a)(4).

20 21. “Consultation between federal and state officials is an important feature of the 21 immigration system.” Arizona, 567 U.S. at 411. Congress has therefore directed that a 22 federal, state, or local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in any way
23 restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, DHS
24 “information regarding the citizenship or immigration status of an individual.” 8 U.S.C.
25 § 1373(a); see 8 U.S.C. § 1644 (same); see also 8 U.S.C. § 1357(g)(10)(A) (providing for 26 state and local “communicat[ion] with [DHS] regarding the immigration status of any 27
28

1 individual, including reporting knowledge that a particular alien is not lawfully present in 2 the United States”). Congress also authorized states and localities “to cooperate with the 3 [Secretary] in the identification, apprehension, detention, or removal of aliens not 4 lawfully present in the United States.” Id. § 1357(g)(10)(B).

5 22. Federal law also explicitly recognizes the United States’ authority to “arrange for 6 appropriate places of detention for aliens detained pending removal or a decision on 7 removal,” including the lease or rental of state, local, and private facilities. See 8 U.S.C.
8 § 1231(g); accord 8 U.S.C. § 1103(a)(11).

9 23. Federal regulation provides that “[n]o person, including any state or local government 10 entity or any privately operated detention facility, that houses, maintains, provides 11 services to, or otherwise holds any detainee on behalf of [DHS] (whether by contract or 12 otherwise), and no other person who by virtue of any official or contractual relationship
13 with such person obtains information relating to any detainee, shall disclose or otherwise 14 permit to be made public the name of, or other information relating to, such detainee.
15 Such information shall be under the control of [DHS] and shall be subject to public 16 disclosure only pursuant to the provisions of applicable federal laws, regulations and 17 executive orders.” 8 C.F.R. § 236.6.

18 24. Congress, through IRCA, has also enacted a “comprehensive framework for combating 19 the employment of illegal aliens.” Arizona, 567 U.S. at 404. IRCA makes it illegal for 20 employers to knowingly hire, recruit, refer, or continue to employ aliens without 21 appropriate work authorization. See 8 U.S.C. § 1324a(a)(1)(A), (a)(2). It also requires 22 every employer to verify the employment authorization status of prospective employees.
23 See id. § 1324a(a)(1)(B), (b). DHS enforces these requirements through criminal 24
25
26
27
28

1 penalties and an escalating series of civil penalties tied to the number of times an
2 employer has violated the provisions. See 8 U.S.C. §§ 1324a(e)(4), (f).

3 25. As a means of enforcing IRCA’s criminal and civil penalties, Congress established a 4 nationally uniform inspection process whereby employers are required to retain 5 documentary evidence of authorized employment of aliens, and to permit federal 6 investigative officers to inspect such documents. See 8 U.S.C. § 1324a(b), (e)(2)(A).

7
8 26. DHS, through ICE and CBP, performs a significant portion of its law enforcement
9 activities in California. In Fiscal Year 2017, ICE’s Enforcement and Removal Operations
10 (ERO) apprehended 20,201 aliens in California alone, or roughly 14% of the aliens
11 apprehended nationwide. Thus far in 2018, ICE ERO has apprehended 8,588 aliens in 12 California, or roughly 14% of the aliens apprehended nationwide. Of those aliens
13 apprehended nationwide in 2016, 2017, and thus far in 2018, 92%, 90%, and 87%
14 respectively, were criminal aliens. In Fiscal Year 2017, ICE ERO booked a total of 15 323,591 aliens into custody, 41,880 of whom were detained in California. And CBP is 16 responsible for enforcing the immigration laws at ports of entry and areas near the border
17 in California, including apprehending recent entrants with criminal convictions or who 18 are national security concerns, and patrolling the border for narcotics.
19

21 CALIFORNIA PROVISIONS

22 Restrictions on Cooperation with Workplace Immigration Enforcement (AB 450)

23
24 27. On October 5, 2017, Governor Brown signed into law the “Immigrant Worker Protection
25 Act,” Assembly Bill 450 (AB 450), effective January 1, 2018 (Exhibit 1). Through AB
26 450, California regulates how private employers in California must respond to federal 27 efforts to ensure compliance with federal immigration laws through investigations in 28

1 places of employment.

2 28. AB 450 added Section 7285.1(a) of the California Government Code, which provides that
3 an employer or its agent “shall not provide voluntary consent to an immigration 4 enforcement agent to enter any nonpublic areas of a place of labor,” unless “the 5 immigration enforcement agent provides a judicial warrant” or consent is “otherwise
6 required by federal law.”

7
8 29. Section 7285.2(a)(1) similarly prohibits an employer or its agent from “provid[ing] 9 voluntary consent to an immigration enforcement agent to access, review, or obtain the 10 employer’s employee records without a subpoena or judicial warrant.”

11 30. Section 7285.2(a)(2) contains an exception for certain documents for which the United 12 States has provided a “Notice of Inspection,” Cal. Gov’t Code § 7285.2(a)(2). AB 450
13 added provisions to the California Labor Code that establish new requirements employers
14 must satisfy before allowing ICE to conduct the inspection process directed by federal 15 law. AB 450 requires employers to notify employees and their authorized representatives 16 of upcoming inspections of employment records “within 72 hours of receiving notice of 17 the inspection.” Cal. Lab. Code § 90.2(a)(1). It also requires employers to provide 18 employees and their authorized representatives, within 72 hours, with copies of written 19 immigration agency notices providing results of inspections. Id. § 90.2(b)(1).

20
22 31. All these provisions are subject to a schedule of civil penalties “of two thousand dollars
23 ($2,000) up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) for a first violation and five thousand 24 dollars ($5,000) up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each subsequent violation.” Cal.
25 Gov’t Code §§ 7285.1(b), 7285.2(b); Cal. Lab. Code § 90.2(c).

26
27 32. AB 450 added Section 1019.2(a) of the California Labor Code, which provides that an 28

1 employer or its agent “shall not reverify the employment eligibility of a current employee
2 at a time or in a manner not required by Section 1324a(b) of Title 8 of the United States
3 Code.” Violators are subject to “a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000).”
4 Cal. Lab. Code § 1019.2(b).

5 33. Upon information and belief, California law does not prohibit employers from voluntarily
6 complying with requests from any other federal or California entities for information or 7 inspection, or compel employers to provide notice to their employees of other efforts to 8 collect information.

9
10 34. In Fiscal Year 2017, ICE conducted approximately 1,300 worksite inspections authorized 11 by IRCA across the country, including approximately 230 in California. If conditions are 12 appropriate, any of those investigations could lead to an inspection with the consent of 13 the employer, and often employers are very willing to provide consent in order to 14 alleviate and address concerns that arise during the inspection process. In addition such 15 inspections with the consent of the employer are critical to investigating cross border
16 smuggling of people, narcotics, and terrorism.

17
19 35. These provisions, individually and collectively, have the purpose and effect of interfering 20 with the enforcement of the INA and IRCA’s prohibition on working without 21 authorization. California has no lawful interest in protecting unauthorized workers from 22 detection or in shielding employers who have violated federal immigration law from 23 penalty. These provisions, as applied to private employers, violate the Supremacy Clause
24 by, among other things, constituting an obstacle to the United States’ enforcement of the 25 immigration laws and discriminating against federal immigration enforcement.
26

27 Inspection and Review of Immigration Detention Facilities (AB 103)
28

1 36. Under longstanding California law, “local detention facilities” are subject to biennial
2 inspections concerning health and safety, fire suppression preplanning, compliance with 3 training and funding requirements, and the types and availability of visitation. Cal. Penal 4 Code § 6031.1(a). The law defines “local detention facilities” as any city, county, or 5 regional facility in which individuals are confined for more than 24 hours, and includes 6 private facilities (though it excludes certain facilities for parolees, treatment and 7 restitution facilities, community correctional centers, and work furlough programs). Id.
8 § 6031.4.
9

10 37. On June 27, 2017, California enacted Assembly Bill 103 (AB 103) (Exhibit 2). Section
11 12 of AB 103 added Section 12532 to the California Government Code.
12

13 38. Rather than subject facilities housing civil immigration detainees to the inspection 14 scheme deemed sufficient for other detention facilities, the statute imposes a new set of 15 requirements specific to facilities housing immigration detainees. In particular, Section
16 12532(a) requires the California Attorney General or his designee “to engage in reviews
17 of county, local, or private locked detention facilities in which noncitizens are being 18 housed or detained for purposes of civil immigration proceedings in California.”
19

20 39. The statute is not limited to an inspection of facilities. The law also requires the 21 California Attorney General or his designee to examine the “due process provided” to 22 civil immigration detainees, and “the circumstances around their apprehension and 23 transfer to the facility.” Cal. Gov’t Code § 12532(b). Section 12532(c) instructs that the 24 California Attorney General or his designee “shall be provided all necessary access for 25 the observations necessary to effectuate reviews required pursuant to this section,
26 including, but not limited to, access to detainees, officials, personnel, and records.”
27
28

1 40. DHS, through ICE, has entered into contracts for detention services with private entities,
2 intergovernmental services agreements (IGSAs) with county, city, or local government
3 entities in California, and intergovernmental agreements (IGAs) with the U.S. Marshals
4 service that provide ICE with guaranteed housing for ICE detainees as needed. ICE
5 currently has twenty active contracts, IGSAs or IGAs, in California and regularly uses
6 nine detention facilities in California to house civil immigration detainees in ICE
7 custody.
8

9 41. Information obtained or developed as a result of an agreement with the detention facility
10 are federal records under the control of ICE for purposes of disclosure and are subject to 11 disclosure only pursuant to applicable federal information laws, regulations, and policies,
12 including but not limited to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., and 8
13 C.F.R. § 236.6.
14

15 42. Three of these facilities, the Adelanto Correctional Facility, the Imperial Regional 16 Detention Facility, and the Mesa Verde Detention Facility are dedicated facilities that 17 exclusively house immigration detainees. In Fiscal Year 2018, these three facilities have 18 had an average daily population of 1,685, 680, and 384 detainees pending the outcome of 19 their administrative immigration cases, respectively.
20

21 43. The remaining facilities with IGSAs house both immigration detainees and local 22 detainees and are used on an as-needed basis. In Fiscal Year 2018, average daily detainee
23 populations at the as-needed facilities have ranged between a high of 956 at Otay Mesa
24 Detention and a low of 171 at Rio Cosumnes Correctional Center.
25

26 44. DHS, through ICE, houses civil immigration detainees at the Otay Mesa Detention
27 Center in California, a private detention facility that CoreCivic owns and operates. Otay
28

1 Mesa has an average daily population of around 1,000 detainees awaiting removal or a
2 decision on removal.

3 45. Upon information and belief, on November 16, 2017, Defendant Becerra initiated via
4 letter a request to inspect various ICE detention facilities, including Imperial, Adelanto,
5 Mesa Verde, the Theo Lacy Facility, the James A. Musick Facility, Yuba County Jail,
6 Rio Cosumnes Correctional Center, Contra Costa West County Detention Facility, and 7 Otay Mesa, as well as a request to inspect DHS documents concerning aliens detained in 8 these locations.
9

10 46. Upon information and belief, Yuba, Rio Cosumnes, Contra Costa, Theo Lacy, and James
11 A. Musick, have been inspected since the law's passage
12

13 47. On January 24, 2018, Defendant Becerra via letter informed Imperial, Adelanto, Mesa
14 Verde, and Otay Mesa that he intended to inspect those facilities on either February 26, 15 2018 or March 5, 2018, and required access to documents and other material subject to 16 ICE control and deemed privileged under federal law and regulation. See 8 C.F.R. §
17 236.6.
18

19 48. Upon information and belief, California does not require any local detention facility to 20 comply with section 12532's heightened inspections regime when it houses detainees for 21 other federal or California entities. AB 103's requirements apply only when local 22 detention facilities house federal civil immigration detainees.
23

24 49. AB 103 thus requires the California Attorney General to investigate the law enforcement 25 efforts of federal agents engaged in apprehending and transferring aliens, to assess the 26 "due process" provided to those aliens and the "circumstances around their apprehension 27 and transfer to the facility," and to assess the law enforcement decisions of personnel
28

1 under contract to the United States, as well as records of unspecified scope. The statute
2 thus commands an improper, significant intrusion into federal enforcement of the 3 immigration laws. California has no lawful interest in investigating federal law
4 enforcement efforts. These provisions violate the Supremacy Clause by, among other
5 things, constituting an obstacle to the United States' enforcement of the immigration laws
6 and discriminating against the United States.
7

8 Restrictions on State and Local Cooperation with Federal Officials (SB 54)

9 50. On October 5, 2017, the Governor signed into law the Senate Bill 54 (SB 54), which 10 includes the "California Values Act," effective January 1, 2018 (Exhibit 3).

11 51. SB 54 limits state and local cooperation with federal immigration enforcement in a 12 number of ways. New Section 7284.6 prohibits state and local law enforcement officials,
13 other than employees of the California Department of Corrections, from, among other 14 things: "[p]roviding information regarding a person's release date or responding to 15 requests for notification by providing release dates or other information," Cal Gov't Code
16 § 7284.6(a)(1)(C); providing "personal information," including (but not limited to) an 17 individual's home address or work address, id. § 7284.6(a)(1)(D); and "[t]ransfer[ring] an 18 individual to immigration authorities," id. § 7284.6(a)(4).
19

21 52. These provisions contain limited exceptions. State and local law enforcement may share 22 with the United States "information regarding a person's release date" or respond "to 23 requests for notification by providing release dates or other information," but only where 24 an individual subject to such information sharing has been convicted of a limited subset
25 crimes, or where the information is available to the public. Cal. Gov't Code §§ 7282.5(a),
26 7284.6(a)(1)(C). Personal information also may be shared only if it is available to the 27
28

1 public. Id. § 7284.6(a)(1)(D). State and local law enforcement agencies may “[t]ransfer
2 an individual to immigration authorities” only if the United States presents a “judicial 3 warrant or judicial probable cause determination,” or the individual in question has been 4 convicted of one of a limited set of enumerated felonies or other serious crimes. Cal.
5 Gov’t Code §§ 7284.6(a)(4), 7282.5(a).

6
7 53. The limited subset of criminal violations does not match federal law governing what may 8 serve as the predicate for inadmissibility or removability, including listing a set of crimes
9 more narrow than those that render an alien removable. See 8 U.S.C. §§ 1182(a)(2), 10 1227(a)(2). And it does not match the set of criminal offenses that require the federal 11 government to detain such aliens upon their release from state or local custody. Id. §
12 1226(c).

13
14 54. Upon information and belief, California law does not impose these restrictions on other
15 forms of information sharing on other topics, nor does it restrict transfers of individuals 16 to other law enforcement agencies in this way.

17
18 55. These provisions impermissibly prohibit even the most basic cooperation with federal 19 officials. As noted above, federal law contemplates that criminal aliens in state custody
20 who may be subject to removal will complete their state or local sentences first before 21 being detained by the United States, but that federal immigration detention for 22 immigration proceedings or for removal will begin upon the alien’s release from state
23 custody. 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c); § 1231(a)(4). Additionally, federal law contemplates that 24 DHS will be able to inspect all applicants for admission, and take all appropriate action
25 against those found to be inadmissible to the United States, even those that may have 26 been transferred to the custody of state and local law enforcement pending such a state
27
28

1 and local prosecution. See 8 U.S.C. §§ 1182, 1225(b)(2); 8 C.F.R. § 235.2. And, to
2 facilitate coordination between state and local officials and the United States, Congress
3 expressly prohibited any federal, state, or local government entity or official from 4 prohibiting, or in any way restricting, any government entity or official from sending to,
5 or receiving from, DHS “information regarding the citizenship or immigration status of 6 an individual.” 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a); see also 8 U.S.C. § 1644. Although SB 54 purports to 7 be consistent with section 1373, see Cal. Gov’t Code § 7284.6(e), sections
8 7284.6(a)(1)(C) and (D) explicitly forbid the sharing of information covered by 8 U.S.C.
9 § 1373.

11 56. The transfer restriction additionally requires that the United States present a “judicial 12 warrant or judicial probable cause determination” before the state or locality may transfer 13 an alien to DHS for appropriate immigration enforcement action. This provision also 14 conflicts with federal law, which establishes a system of civil administrative warrants as 15 the basis for immigration arrest and removal, and does not require or contemplate use of a 16 judicial warrant for civil immigration enforcement. See 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), 1231(a).

17
18 57. Upon information and belief, since January 1, 2018, law enforcement agencies in 19 California, as defined by SB 54, will not communicate to DHS the release date or home
20 address of aliens DHS has reason to believe are removable from the United States, or 21 transfer such aliens to DHS custody, even where DHS presents a Congressionally-
22 authorized civil administrative warrant of arrest or removal, see 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a);
23 1231(a), or has transferred those aliens to local law enforcement in the first instance to 24 permit California or its subdivisions to criminally prosecute them for a state crime.

25
26 58. By restricting basic information sharing and by barring the transfer to DHS of aliens in 27
28

1 state or local custody upon their release through the means provided for by federal law,
2 SB 54 requires federal immigration officers to either engage in difficult and dangerous
3 efforts to re-arrest aliens who were previously in state custody, endangering immigration
4 officers, the alien at issue, and others who may be nearby, or to determine that it is not 5 appropriate to transfer an alien to state or local custody in the first place, in order to 6 comply with their mission to enforce the immigration laws. California has no lawful 7 interest in assisting removable aliens to evade federal law enforcement.
8

9 59. These provisions violate the Supremacy Clause by, among other things, constituting an
10 obstacle to the United States' enforcement of the immigration laws and discriminating 11 against federal immigration enforcement, as well as (with respect to the information-12 sharing restrictions) expressly violating 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a).
